COURSE DESCRIPTION

This is an introductory course in comparative politics in which we examine the theoretical and the practical dimensions of comparative politics. The first two sections of the course examine institutional and behavioral issues debated in established and newer democracies throughout the world. We explore competing theories of comparative politics as well as core issues in the field such as party and parliamentary development, influence of electoral systems and voting behavior. In the final section of the course, you will apply these theories and concepts to develop a constitution for the hypothetical country of Kerblakistan. Our course is available on Canvas where you can access the readings, web pages for the course and your grades.

INSTRUCTIONAL METHOD

This course is designated as “in-person” by FAU.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

My course objectives for you include the following:

1. Develop knowledge of concepts, theories and terminology in comparative politics.
2. Understand how institutional choices affect political behavior of elites and voters.
3. Apply theories and concepts discussed to real world scenarios.

COURSE POLICIES

1. It is not appropriate to come to class late; however if you come to class late, please find a seat near the door.
2. If you need to leave early, please discuss this with me prior to the start of class.
3. Any personal issues should be dealt with before class begins so that you do not leave and re-enter the room. It is disruptive and interferes with the classroom experience.

SELECTED UNIVERSITY & COLLEGE POLICIES

ACCESSIBILITY POLICY STATEMENT:

In compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act Amendments Act (ADAAA), students who require reasonable accommodations due to a disability to properly execute coursework must register with Student Accessibility Services (SAS) and follow all SAS procedures. SAS has offices across three of FAU's campuses – Boca Raton, Davie and Jupiter – however disability services are available for students on all campuses. For more information, please visit the SAS website at www.fau.edu/sas.

ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE PREAMBLE:

FAU recognizes the value of generative AI in facilitating learning. However, output generated by artificial intelligence (AI), such as written words, computations, code, artwork, images, music, etc., for example, is drawn from previously published materials and is not your own original work. FAU students are not permitted to use AI for any course work unless explicitly allowed to do so by the instructor of the class for a specific assignment. [Policy 12.16 Artificial Intelligence] Class policies related to AI use are decided by the individual faculty. Some faculty may permit the use of AI in some assignments but not others, and some faculty may prohibit the use of AI in their course entirely. In the case that an instructor permits the use of AI for some assignments, the assignment instructions will indicate when and how the use of AI is permitted in that specific assignment. It is the student's responsibility to comply with the instructor's expectations for each assignment in each course. When AI is authorized, the student is also responsible and accountable for the content of the work. AI may generate inaccurate, false, or exaggerated information. Users should approach any generated content with skepticism and review any information generated by AI before using generated content as-is. If you are unclear about whether or not the use of AI is permitted, ask your instructor before starting the assignment. Failure to comply with the requirements related to the use of AI may constitute a violation of the Florida Atlantic Code of Academic Integrity, Regulation 4.001. Proper Citation: If the use of AI is permitted for a specific assignment, then use of the AI tool must be properly documented and cited. For more information on how to properly cite the use of AI tools, visit <https://fau.edu/ai/citation>

AI LANGUAGE SPECIFIC TO THIS COURSE:

AI Prohibited: The use of AI to assist in any work assigned in this specific course is prohibited.

ATTENDANCE POLICY:

Students are expected to attend all of their scheduled University classes and to satisfy all academic objectives as outlined by the instructor. The effect of absences upon grades is determined by the instructor, and the University reserves the right to deal at any time with individual cases of non-attendance. Students are responsible for arranging to make up work missed because of legitimate class absence, such as illness, family emergencies, military obligation, court-imposed legal obligations or participation in University-approved activities. Examples of University-approved reasons for absences include participating on an athletic or scholastic team, musical and theatrical performances and debate activities. In accordance with rules of the FAU, students have the right to reasonable accommodations to participate in University approved activities, including athletic or scholastics teams, musical and theatrical performances and debate activities. It is your responsibility to notify the instructor at least one week prior to missing any course assignment. It is the student's responsibility to give the instructor notice prior to any anticipated absences and within a reasonable amount of time after an unanticipated absence, ordinarily by the next scheduled class meeting. Instructors must allow each student who is absent for a University-approved reason the opportunity to make up work missed without any reduction in the student's final course grade as a direct result of such absence.

CODE OF ACADEMIC INTEGRITY POLICY STATEMENT:

Students at FAU should endeavor to maintain the highest ethical standards. Academic dishonesty is a serious breach of these ethical standards because it interferes with the University mission to provide a high-quality education in which no student enjoys an unfair advantage over any other. Academic dishonesty is also destructive to the University community, which is grounded in a system of mutual trust and places high value on personal integrity and individual responsibility. For more information, see University Regulation 4.001.

COUNSELING AND PSYCHOLOGICAL SERVICES (CAPS) POLICY STATEMENT:

Life as a university student can be challenging physically, mentally and emotionally. Students who find stress negatively affecting their ability to achieve academic or personal goals may wish to consider utilizing FAU's Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS) Center. CAPS provides FAU students a range of services – individual counseling, support meetings, and psychiatric services, to name a few – offered to help improve and maintain emotional well-being. For more information, go to <http://www.fau.edu/counseling>.

DROPS/WITHDRAWALS:

Please consult the FAU Registrar FAQ for more information on dropping and/or withdrawing from a course.

FACULTY RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

Florida Atlantic University respects the rights of instructors to teach and students to learn. Maintenance of these rights requires classroom conditions that do not impede their exercise. To ensure these rights, faculty members have the prerogative to: Establish and implement academic standards. Establish and enforce reasonable behavior standards in each class. Recommend disciplinary action for students whose behavior may be judged as disruptive under the Student Code of Conduct University Regulation 4.007.

GRADE APPEAL PROCESS:

You may request a review of the final course grade when you believe that one of the following conditions apply (FAU Regulation 4.002 information on the grade appeals process):

- There was a computational or recording error in the grading.
- The grading process used non-academic criteria.
- There was a gross violation of the instructor's own grading system.

PLAGIARISM:

Plagiarism is unacceptable in a university community. Academic work must be an original work of your own thought, research or self-expression. When students borrow ideas, wording or organization from another source, they must acknowledge that fact in an appropriate manner. Plagiarism is the deliberate use and appropriation of another's work without identifying the source and trying to pass-off such work as one's own. Any student who fails to give full credit for ideas or materials taken from another has plagiarized. All written work will be submitted via Turnitin, a tool which assesses the similarity of writing to known source material. I will use this tool and its AI detection function as well as other AI tools to determine if students have engaged in plagiarism either by using material from others or using AI to generate a paper. If I determine that you have engaged in plagiarism based on these tools, you will receive a "0" for the assignment. Repeated use will result in the use of FAU academic integrity procedures for the course. I take plagiarism very seriously and will be diligent in ensuring the integrity of academic work for the course.

RECORDING OF LECTURES POLICY:

Students enrolled in this course may record video or audio of class lectures for their own personal educational use. A class lecture is defined as a formal or methodical oral presentation as part of a university course intended to present information or teach students about a particular subject. Recording class activities other than class lectures, including but not limited to student presentations (whether individually or as part of a group), class discussion (except when incidental to and incorporated within a class lecture), labs, clinical presentations such as patient history, academic exercises involving student participation, test or examination administrations, field trips, and private conversations between students in the class or between a student and the lecturer, is prohibited. Recordings may not be used as a substitute for class participation or class attendance and may not be published or shared without the written consent of the faculty member. Failure to adhere to these requirements may constitute a violation of the University's Student Code of Conduct.

RELIGIOUS ACCOMMODATION POLICY STATEMENT:

In accordance with rules of the Florida Board of Education and Florida law, students have the right to reasonable accommodations from the University in order to observe religious practices and beliefs regarding admissions, registration, class attendance and the scheduling of examinations and work assignments. For further information, see FAU Regulation 2.007.

TIME COMMITMENT PER CREDIT HOUR:

For traditionally delivered courses, not less than one (1) hour of classroom or direct faculty instruction each week for fifteen (15) weeks per Fall or Spring semester, and a minimum of two (2) hours of out-of-class student work for each credit hour. Equivalent time and effort are required for Summer Semesters, which usually have a shortened timeframe. Fully Online courses, hybrid, shortened, intensive format courses, and other non-traditional modes of delivery will demonstrate equivalent time and effort.

TITLE IX STATEMENT:

In any case involving allegations of sexual misconduct, you are encouraged to report the matter to the University Title IX Coordinator in the Office of Civil Rights and Title IX (OCR9). If University faculty become aware of an allegation of sexual misconduct, they are expected to report it to OCR9. If a report is made, someone from OCR9 and/or Campus Victim Services will contact you to make you aware of available resources including support services, supportive measures, and the University's grievance procedures. More information, including contact information for OCR9, is available at <https://www.fau.edu/ocr9/title-ix/>. You may also contact Victim Services at victimservices@fau.edu or 561-297-0500 (ask to speak to an Advocate) or schedule an appointment with a counselor at Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS) by calling 561-297-CAPS.

COURSE ASSESSMENTS, ASSIGNMENTS & GRADING POLICY

GRADING REQUIREMENTS:

Grades in the course are based on the following: First, there are three examinations during the semester. The examinations consist of multiple-choice questions. Material for the examinations is drawn from both the lectures and the assigned readings. The first two exams are twenty-five questions. The exam lasts twenty-five minutes (from 12:30-12:55). The third exam is fifty questions and lasts fifty minutes (12:30-1:20). I provide a make-up examination only with a University-approved excuse (please see the FAU policy above). Second to assist you in thinking about the different ways in which the system of government, rights and freedoms and divisions of power can be structured as well as the social development of a state, you have been assigned a country in which you are required to summarize its constitutional features as well as level of democracy, corruption and economy. Third, you will design a constitution for the hypothetical country of Kerblakistan. The constitution involves incorporating several institutional issues discussed in the class. Grades are not curved or adjusted.

GRADE SCALE:

Grade	Percentage/Points
A	93-100% (279-300)

C	73-77% (219-233)
C-	70-72% (210-218)
D+	68-69% (204-209)
D	63-67% (189-203)
D-	60-62% (180-188)
F	0-59% (0-179)

GRADE ASSESSMENT POINTS:

Examination 1	50 points
Examination 2	50 points
Examination 3	100 points
Country Constitution	45 points
Constitution Design	50 points
Introduction	5 points
Total	300 points

LATE ASSIGNMENT POLICY:

Each assignment has a clearly stated due date and time. You can also see assignment due dates and times in the Canvas Calendar. For the country constitution and Kerblakistan assignments, I will deduct 10 points for every day they are.
